Experience

Bob Butler specializes in providing financial restructuring advisory services and crisis management services for troubled companies. Mr. Butler recently completed service as Chief Restructuring Officer of Spheris Inc. in its complex bankruptcy matter. Mr. Butler has over 30 years of diverse financial consulting, executive management and public accounting experience in public and private companies.

Mr. Butler has extensive energy experience, including his substantial involvement in the successful restructuring of NRG Energy and Mirant Corporation. Mr. Butler also recently provided Debtor services to a large midstream pipeline company. Additionally, he assisted in the expert testimony in connection with the Enron Class Action and Mega Claims litigation.

For California ISO, Mr. Butler and his team were engaged by the Independent System Operator ("ISO") Board of Governors to provide consulting and financial advisory services with respect to the ISO's Market Redesign and Technology Upgrade (MRTU) program. The MRTU is central to providing the framework for reliable operations of the California high-voltage power grid in the long run.

Mr. Butler has significant experience in mergers and acquisitions, post-merger integration, cost reduction initiatives, operational turn-around activities and a wide range of publicly and privately held company financial and accounting issues.

Education and Affiliations

Mr. Butler holds a B.S. in Accounting from the University of Arizona. He is a Certified Public Accountant and a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.
