

Matthew Neideffer
BERKELEY RESEARCH GROUP, LLC
College Station, TX 77845

Direct: 979.599.9224
mneideffer@thinkbrg.com

Summary

Matt Neideffer is a director in Berkeley Research Group's College Station office. He has advised clients and provided analyses supporting expert testimony in antitrust, wage and overtime disputes, class certification, and public policy matters. Mr. Neideffer has extensive experience coordinating large scale projects and conducting complex analysis. These analyses have been presented in federal and state courts, and before regulatory agencies including the Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission.

Mr. Neideffer received bachelor degrees in economics and psychology from San Diego State University and advanced to candidacy for a Ph.D. in economics at Texas A&M University. He has taught courses in econometrics, research methods in economics, microeconomics, and macroeconomics at Texas A&M.

EMPLOYMENT

Berkeley Research Group, LLC, December 2014–present
Director

Berkeley Research Group, LLC, March 2010–December 2014
Co-founder
Principal

LECG, LLC and predecessor companies, April 1999–March 2010
Principal

Texas A&M University, 2000–2001
Lecturer, 2000

SELECTED INDUSTRY EXPERIENCE

Real Estate
Healthcare
Pharmaceuticals
Medical Devices

Insurance
Auto Parts Manufacturing
Supermarkets
Satellite Radio
Tobacco
Energy
Quick Service Restaurants
Retail
Software Manufacturing
Outdoor Power Equipment
Car Rental
Insurance
Fertilizer Manufacturing
Publishing
Mutual Fund Management
Appliance Rental
Pay-Day Loans

PUBLICATIONS

1. "Women's Hours of Work and Marriage Market Imbalance" (with Shoshana Grossbard-Shechtman), in Economics of the Family and Family Policies, Inga Persson and Christina Jonung (eds.), London: Routledge, 1997.
2. "Further Evidence on Dimensionality and Correlates of the Cognitive Failures Questionnaire" (with Gerald Larson, David Alderton, and Eliot Underhill), British Journal of Psychology 88/1 (February 1997): 29–38.