SUMMARY

Peter D. Wrobel is a Managing Director with the Berkeley Research Group in Los Angeles. With more than thirty years of forensic accounting and business valuation experience, Mr. Wrobel has testified as an expert in both Federal and State courts in cases involving business valuation, fraud, intellectual property, breach of contract, wrongful termination, and personal damage matters. He specializes in damage determination; fraud investigation; statistical, economic and cost analysis; and mathematical modelling and database development. He has extensive experience in developing trial graphics and other exhibits.

Prior to BRG, Mr. Wrobel was a Director at LECG LLC and Navigant Consulting, Inc. and a Managing Director at FTI Consulting. Mr. Wrobel was also Senior Partner of Simpson LLP. Prior to the formation of Simpson LLP, he was a Senior Manager in the Litigation Services practice in the Los Angeles office of Coopers & Lybrand (now known as PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP).

He is a Certified Public Accountant in California and Tennessee and is a Certified Fraud Examiner. Mr. Wrobel also holds the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants' Accreditation in Business Valuation ("ABV"). Mr. Wrobel has taught classes at the University of Southern California Gould School of Law and at conferences organized by the AICPA and the California Society of CPAs.
