SUMMARY

Daniela Bambaci is a Managing Director with BRG, leader of the firm's International Arbitration practice and head of its Buenos Aires office. Ms. Bambaci provides expert testimony in matters involving valuation, damages, and regulatory opinions. She has been immersed in over 60, and appointed as expert in over 30, international arbitration treaty and commercial cases, including various claims in North and Latin America, Africa, Eastern Europe and Asia. Her work has spanned across a variety of industries from natural resources to hospitality, including natural gas production and transportation, renewable energy, oil production, airport concessions, the hospitality industry, water and sewerage services, electricity production and distribution and forestry.

Ms. Bambaci has provided expert evidence on issues including tariff-setting in utilities, valuation and cost of capital issues, and lost profits and damages. Ms. Bambaci's work in arbitration cases has included matters under ICSID, UNCITRAL, and ICC. In addition, she has been recognized as a Global Elite Thought Leader by Who's Who Legal since 2021.

Prior to BRG, she joined the International Arbitration practice of a global expert services and consulting firm in 2003. She then became an affiliate for Compass Lexecon in 2010 when she moved to Beijing, China. Later she moved to Compass Lexecon Houston's office where she was located between 2015 and 2018 when she returned to Argentina.

Ms. Bambaci holds a B.A. in Economics from Universidad de San Andres, and Postgraduate Degree in Economics from the Universidad Torcuato di Tella.
