John Wagner is a Director in BRG Healthcare Performance Improvement and Healthcare Practice with over 25 years of industry and consulting experience helping providers improve their strategic direction and performance. John leads the Value Based Transformation Practice specializing in the strategic adoption of value based and managed care practices and programs. His focus is on the strategic evolution of programs and efforts that transition organizations into operationalizing high performing population health strategies, networks and value-based care solutions. John's team also works to develop innovative care delivery solutions in support of the industry's transition to value-based arrangement. BRG's focus within value-based care has been on helping health system partners establish network-based solutions (ACO and CINs), optimize network solutions, and develop enhanced revenue through targeted programs.

John has helped many health systems on their journey with expertise in contracting management and developing value-based arrangements. John has served in interim leadership roles related to managed and value-based care with a focus on supporting contract negotiations. Prior to joining BRG, John spent 20 years on the payer side with network and product expertise, developed ACO and provider partnerships on behalf of a large pharmacy retailer, successfully ran an MSSP ACO with shared savings and had accountability for a clinical platform for an ACO enablement firm. John's healthcare payer experienced focused on network development and negotiations, analytics, strategy, product development and management, and operations. John has deep experience within Commercial, Medicare, Medicaid and Exchange lines of business.

John is frequent presenter on a variety of healthcare topics to include Value Based Care, Payment Trends, Risk and Alternative Payment Models.
