Experience

Bruce Bingham has over 25 years of experience in business valuation and financial feasibility, as well as in business planning, investigative due-diligence, and litigation consulting.

He has served as an expert witness in numerous federal and state, civil and bankruptcy trials, and in arbitrations. Mr. Bingham has extensive experience valuing and advising companies in strategic planning, solvency matters, transactions, accounting-related matters, fraud, disaster-based damages and diminution in value. He has provided valuations of private equity portfolio companies and hedge funds, and has testified in numerous state and federal venues. He is past Chairman of the RICS-Americas Valuation Council and the ASA Business Valuation Committee and chaired the International Valuation Standards Group, publishing the paper Determination of Fair Value of Intangible Assets for IFRS Reporting Purposes.

Prior to joining BRG, Mr. Bingham was an Executive Director at Capstone Advisory Group, LLC, and previously was a Senior Managing Director with Trenwith Valuation, LLC, and the National Practice Director of Valuation Services for BDO Seidman, LLP. Before BDO, Mr. Bingham was the Principal in Charge of KPMG Peat Marwick LLP's New York Appraisal/Valuation practice. Before attending graduate school, he was a commercial loan officer at a major New England bank. Mr. Bingham has directed over one thousand engagements involving private equity, intangible assets and intellectual property, divisions of public entities, companies entering or emerging from bankruptcy, allocating acquired assets, and providing advice to boards of directors.

EDUCATION & AFFILIATIONS

Mr. Bingham received his Bachelor of Arts degree in English from Rutgers College, and his Master's Degree in Public and Private Management in the Charter Class of the Yale School of Organization and Management. Mr. Bingham is an elected Fellow of the College of Fellows of the American Society of Appraisers, specializing in business valuation (FASA designation) and a Fellow with a Business Valuation Specialty of the Royal Institute of Chartered Surveyors (RICS). He is a former board member of ASA and a founding member of the AICPA Business Valuation and Appraisal Subcommittee.

Mr. Bingham is also a retired brigadier general, U.S. Army.
