Experience

John Esposito has over 37 years of experience, including 26 providing financial restructuring advisory services for lenders and debtors in healthy and troubled situations, both in and out of court, as well as 11 years in accounting. He has also managed due diligence projects for parties making new investments and has sat on company boards. He has been engaged in over 200 restructuring matters for both large and middle-market matters in various industries, with a concentration in manufacturing, finance companies, gaming/hospitality, and transportation.

Mr. Esposito's extensive turnaround advisory experience includes strategic planning, cash flow forecasting and cash management, business plan preparation and analysis, facility rationalization, and going-concern and liquidation analyses.

Prior to joining BRG, Mr. Esposito was an executive director at Capstone Advisory Group, LLC. Previously he was a senior managing director at the Policano & Manzo legacy practice of FTI Consulting. He was also with Deloitte's audit practice and with Anchin Block & Anchin LLP, a regional accounting firm.

Education and Affiliations

Mr. Esposito holds a BBA in Accounting from Hofstra University. He is a Certified Public Accountant and has professional memberships with the Turnaround Management Association, Association of Insolvency and Restructuring Advisors, American Institute of CPAs, and the New York State Society of CPAs.
