SUMMARY

Mike Couser is a managing director of Business Development and Client Services at BRG, based in London, and a member of BRG's EMEA Leadership Team.

Mr. Couser is responsible for business development activities and client services across EMEA, focusing on BRG's ability to assist clients' advance litigation, arbitration, competition cases, regulatory matters, and investigations. He assists clients in the identification and selection of experts and consultants where there are questions of finance or competition, and where there is a need for accounting, economic, and/or business intelligence expertise. His clients have included national and international law firms and corporations and government departments and regulators.

Mr. Couser has over twenty-five years of experience advising clients from within the global disputes industry, having spent over twenty years as a member of the senior clerking team at Blackstone Chambers and 3 Hare Court, and then as head of business development for EMEA disputes at a prominent financial consultancy.
