The Associate Role – Economic & Financial Consulting – Hong Kong/Singapore

BRG is a global, expert-led consulting firm. Our APAC office professionals principally advise on economic and financial matters in high-stakes disputes, including court litigations and international arbitrations. We also provide economic, regulatory and valuation advice to companies and regulators.

As a new or recent graduate, you will join BRG as an Associate, working on business valuation, damages assessment, microeconomic analysis and forensic investigation assignments across various industries.

From providing key support to market-leading experts testifying in high-stakes litigation to performing rigorous economic and financial analysis, you will be working on intellectually challenging casework whilst developing practical, real-world commercial experience and gaining in-depth insight into how businesses, industries and markets operate.

Your day-to-day work will include company, market and case research, financial analysis and modelling, written analysis and quality assurance of deliverables. BRG fosters a collaborative environment where you will be given genuine responsibility from the outset whilst being supported by experienced members of your team.

Associates in the APAC practice are supported in studying for a chartered accountancy qualification (e.g. CPA with the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants, or equivalent) or the Chartered Financial Analyst qualification.

Why BRG?

BRG's success rests on the talent and accomplishments of our team. We know our value is in the quality of our employees and do everything we can to ensure that they gain the right experience, education and opportunities for advancement. We believe in mentoring our employees to help define their career paths and achieve their full potential.

Our firm culture is entrepreneurial, collaborative and inclusive, bolstered by high-calibre colleagues at every level of the organisation. We seek team members who are intellectually curious and motivated by our clients' most complex business challenges.

Your advancement at BRG will be based on merit and reflect your contributions to casework and client relationships. As your career at BRG evolves, you will have opportunities to play ever-larger roles developing the analyses used in our client projects. You will move amongst our various practice areas and broaden your professional expertise. Along the way, you will receive comprehensive feedback, mentoring and coaching.

What We Are Looking For

The ability to think through complex issues and to present logical analysis in a clear, concise manner is vital to the services we provide to our clients. Collaborative working skills are essential, as we often work in small, focused teams.

We highly value a record of outstanding academic work in candidates and so require a first or upper-second honours degree in any subject.

Additionally, candidates should demonstrate:

- a high level of enthusiasm and proactivity
- an attention to detail
- the ability to communicate ideas succinctly
- the ability to produce high-quality work under tight timelines, when required
- a willingness to take ownership of work
- the ability to work as part of a team and effectively with others
- fluency (spoken and written) in one or more of the following languages: Chinese, Korean or Japanese

How to Apply

To apply, please complete the BRG APAC Associate application form at this link and submit your application.

We are an equal opportunity employer and welcome applications from all suitably qualified candidates, regardless of their race, sex, disability, religion/belief, sexual orientation, gender identity or age. If you require specific accommodations during the application or interview process or to perform the role, please let us know.
