

The BRG Difference – Our Organizational Culture

The concept of Intelligence That Works—delivering great ideas, ensuring that our recommendations are practically executable, and helping clients advance—drives all that we do, from the way we work with our clients to the way we operate internally.

BRG’s firm culture is entrepreneurial and collaborative, bolstered by high-caliber colleagues at every level of the organization. Our professionals have in-depth experience across a wide range of industries and markets, from construction and energy to technology and healthcare. No matter what sector our client’s business is in, we have experienced professionals who understand the challenges they face—making us better equipped to help solve them.

Corporate Finance

BRG Corporate Finance professionals specialize in providing strategic, operational, and financial advice to private equity firms, management teams, boards of directors, investors, hedge funds, and other lenders in a wide range of complex situations. Composed of experienced, hands-on professionals who are results oriented and data driven, the practice collaborates with management teams and sponsors to deliver strategic options that maximize value for stakeholders. Our professionals have in-depth experience across a wide range of industries and markets, including retail, consumer products, financial services, healthcare, and technology.

Healthcare and Life Sciences

BRG Healthcare harnesses and unlocks the power of the information generated in the healthcare system. Our professionals regularly leverage financial, clinical, operations, and survey data maintained by payers, providers, life sciences manufacturers, and government entities to develop solutions for our clients’ most pressing issues. Our professionals have backgrounds in healthcare economics, information technology, management and administration, finance, accounting, government regulation and enforcement, and academia. Many have relevant advanced degrees and certifications including PhDs, MBAs, CPAs, CFEs, and coding certifications.

Economics, Disputes & Investigations

BRG Economics, Disputes & Investigations professionals provide authoritative independent insight and related litigation advisory services based on data analytics and industry knowledge. Our professionals have provided clients around the world with strategic insight and expert testimony in commercial litigation, arbitration, and mediation. Our core practice areas include antitrust and competition, class action, forensic accounting, health disputes and investigations, intellectual property, labor and employment, and securities litigation.

Global

From their bases in the Americas, Europe, the Middle East, and Africa, and Asia-Pacific, BRG’s Global professionals principally advise on economic and financial matters in high-stakes disputes, including competition cases, court litigations, and international arbitrations. Our experts and professionals combine expertise in finance, accounting, economics, construction, energy, analytics, and technology and provide financial and economic consulting, financial analysis, expert reports and testimony, and strategic guidance to businesses, investors, contractors, and law firms.
